By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring all Persons coming from any Port or Place on the Coast of France, Northward of the Bay of Biscay, to bring Bills or Certificates of Health.

GEORGE R.

WHereas we have received Information, that several Places in the Southern Parts of France continue to be infected with the Plague; and that the Infection has of late extended it self fu ther wi:hin that Kingdom: We out of our great Care for the Preservation of our People, and to prevent the bringing the Infection into our Dominions, by our Order made in Council this second Day of October, have directed and required, that all Masters and other Persons having Charge of any Packet Boat, or other Ship or Vessel, coming from any Port or Place on the Coast of France Northward of the Bay of Biscay, (the same by our former Orders in Council not being put under Quarentine) and which shall arrive in any Port or Place within Great Britain, or any of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, after the fourteenth Day of this Instant October, shall bring with them Bills or Certificates of Health, signed by the Chief Magistrate of the Port or Place from whence they shall respectively come, and produce the same, upon Demand, to the Principal Officer of the Customs, or other Officer appointed to see Quarentine duly performed, within the Port or Place at which they shall arrive; who are hereby respectively authorized and required to make such Demand, before any Person be permitted to land, or any Goods to be put on Shore out of such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel; and that no Master or other Person, having Charge of any Packet Boat, or other Ship or Vessel whatsoever, coming from any such Port or Place on the Coasts of France, as aforesaid, shall take on board, or bring into any Port or Place within Great Britain, or any of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, any Person or Persons of what Condition or Quality soever they be, unless such Person or Persons shall respectively deliver to such Master or other Person, having Charge of such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, Bills or Certificates of Health, signed by the Chief Magistrate of the Town or Place in France, from whence they shall come; and such Master or other Person, having Charge of any such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, shall produce upon Demand, such Bills or Certificates of Health, for all Passengers on board the said Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel respectively, to the Principal Officer of the Customs, or other Officer appointed to see Quarentine duly performed, within the Port or Place at which he shall arrive; who are hereby respectively authorized and required to make such Demand before any Person be permitted to land, or any Goods to be put on Shore out of such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel; and in case such Master or other Person, having Charge of any such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, shall be guilty of any Default in the Premisses, then from and after such Default made, such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, and all Persons, Goods and Merchandizes coming and imported in the same, and all Persons, Ships and Vessels, who, or which shall receive any Persons, Goods, or Merchandizes, from on board any such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, or shall go on board the same, and such Persons, as after Quarentine performed, shall be employed in the Hold of any such Packet Boat, Ship or Vessel, for the taking any Goods not liable to retain Infection from Hemp, Flax, or other Goods enumerated in our Order in Council of the fifth of February last, and our Proclamation of the same Date,

Date, notifying our ſaid Order, ſhall be reſpectively ſubject and liable to all and every the Directions, Regulations, Appointments, and Reſtrictions, contained and mentioned in our ſaid Order in Council of the fifth of February laſt, and Proclamation notifying the ſame; and all and every the ſaid Directions, Regulations, Appointments, and Reſtrictions, ſhall, from and after ſuch Default made, have Effect, and be put in Execution, for and in reſpect of all ſuch Packet Boats, Ships and Veſſels, and Perſons, Goods and Merchandizes, as aforeſaid, and all Matters and Things relating thereunto reſpectively, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been originally inſerted and deſcribed in our ſaid Order in Council of the fifth of February laſt, and Proclamation notifying our ſaid Order: Now to the Intent that no Perſon may pretend Ignorance of our Commands therein, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to iſſue this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby, in Purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the ſeventh Year of our Reign, Intituled, An Act for repealing an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarentine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the ſpreading of Infection, give Notice of the ſaid Order of this ſecond Day of October; and do require that all Perſons do yield exact Obedience to the ſame. And we do hereby command the Commiſſioners of our Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of our High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, the Commiſſioners of our Cuſtoms, and the reſpective Governours and Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the ſaid Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, that they do take Care and give the neceſſary Directions, that the ſaid Order be put in Execution, and duly obſerved. And we do likewiſe ſtrictly charge and command the Commanders of our Ships of War, the Commanders of our Forts and Garriſons lying near our Sea-Coaſts, and all our Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magiſtrates, Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice, to be aiding and aſſiſting to the Officers of our Cuſtoms, and to all other Officers and Perſons that ſhall be concerned in putting our ſaid Order in due Execution, upon Pain of incurring our higheſt Diſpleaſure, and the Penalties provided by Law againſt ſuch Offences.

Given at our Court at Kenſington this ſecond Day of October, in the eighth Year of our Reign.

God ſave the KING.

Paris, Oct. 11. The Duke of St. Simon, who was to ſet out Yeſterday for Spain, has deferred his Departure till next Week, his Equipage being not yet finiſhed; 'tis ſaid the Crown gives him 600000 Livres towards the Expences of his Embaſſy. Preparations are making for the Chriſtening the Duke Regent's three youngeſt Daughters; the King is to be Godfather and the Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans Godmother. M. de Bezons Archbiſhop of Rouen, died on the 8th Inſtant, at his Seat called Gallion in Normandy; 'tis thought the Biſhop of Avranches, Brother to M. le Blanc, will ſucceed him. The Biſhops of Bologne and of Langres are ſaid to be very ill. On the 7th the Duke of Bourbon returned the Cardinal du Bois his Viſit in the Hôtel d'Effiat, which the latter has hired, and where he will receive the Viſits from all the Princes of the Blood. The Princeſs Ragotski arrived here on the 9th, and 'tis ſaid the Prince her Husband will follow her hither ſhortly. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 8th of October, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

Provence. From M. de Joſſaud, Sept. 21. There has not been any ſick at Arles theſe 28 Days paſt. The Quarantain was ending, and the Houſes were perfuming. From M. le Bret, Sept. 20. All Provence being will nigh intirely free from the Plague, he propoſes to moderate the Precautions which were uſed againſt Communication. Salon is recovering, and performing Quarantain. He (M. le Bret) had cauſed a Soldier to be Shot for concealing ſome ſuſpected Apparel.

Comtat of Avignon. From M. de Marangies Governour of Orange, Sept. 25. The Plague has been brought to Orange by a Woman who came with Brandy from Bedarides: She and her three Children are dead, and her Husband has Tumors under

under his Arm-pits: Their Houſe is faſtened up, and the Street barricaded at both Ends. M. de Nogaret writes the 25th of Sept. That it was reported Cadrouſſe, Carpentras, and Sorgues, in the Diſtrict of Avignon, were infected. The Mortality was not violent at Avignon.

Languedoc. From the Marſhal Berwick and the Duke de Roquelaure, the 26th and 28th of Sept. Between the 9th of Auguſt and the 18th of September 1200 had died in Marvejols: 300 remained ſick there. The Diſtemper increaſed at Mende, and continues at Genouillac: It decreaſes in thoſe Villages and Hamlets of the Gevaudan where the Inhabitants are in Barracks. It has ceaſed at the Abbey of Chambon. Since it broke out at Couzes and Vergogneux 76 Perſons had died, and 19 remained ſick. St. Genaix in Vivarais is infected. From M. de Rothe. Two Men are dead with Tumours on them, in a Houſe of St. Jean de Gardonenque, a ſmall Town four Leagues from Alais; thought to be occaſioned by their eating bad Meat: Two Perſons who were in their Company and eat with them, had Tumours likewiſe, but are cured.

By the laſt Letters from M. de Bonas, de Rambion, de Beaune, and de Ligueirac, the Velay, Auvergne, and Rouergue are in perfect Health; and ſuch proper Precautious were taken at all the Paſſages, that it was hoped the Contagion would not penetrate into thoſe Parts.

Stockholm, Sept. 22, O. S. On the 20th Inſtant Sir John Norris went from hence for Elſenab, in order to take the Opportunity of the firſt fair Wind to ſail for England with the Fleet under his Command.

Copenhagen, Sept 27, O. S. at Noon. Juſt now we ſee from the Round Tower 21 Sail of large Ships, within two Daniſh Miles of this Town; which in all Probability is the Fleet under Sir John Norris's Command.

Gibraltar, Sept. 8, O. S. Captain Stewart having brought over hither all the Britiſh Captives from Tetuan, to the Number of 290, has cauſed them to be imbarked in the Dover and Sheerneſs, which will ſail for Great Britain with the firſt fair Wind.

Dublin, Sept. 29. Yeſterday His Majeſty's Anſwers to the Addreſſes of the two Houſes of Parliament of this Kingdom at the Opening of the Seſſion, were by Direction of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, communicated to each Houſe, and are as follows:

His Majeſty's Anſwer to the Addreſs of the Houſe of Lords.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majeſty returns His Thanks to the Houſe of Lords for their very loyal Addreſs, which is filled with ſo many Expreſſions of Duty and Affection. And they may depend on His Majeſty's continuing to do every thing on his Part to make his People happy.

His Majeſty's Anſwer to the Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majeſty thanks the Houſe of Commons for their dutiful and Loyal Addreſs, and queſtions not but they will make good thoſe Aſſurances which they give His Majeſty of their Affection to his Perſon and Government, of which they have upon all Occaſions given him ſuch ſignal Proofs.

His Majeſty will omit nothing that may contribute to the Welfare and Happineſs of a People that have ſo long diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, and the Good of their Country.

Whitehall, Oct. 7.

Notice is hereby given to all Britiſh Merchants trading to Leghorn, that the Magiſtrates of that Place expect proper Certificates, ſpecifying the Quality and Quantity of the Goods laden in every Ship which ſhall put in there, with the Name of the Place where ſhe was laden, and atteſting that at the Time the Goods were put on board, ſuch Place was free from the Plague. In Default of which Certificates, no Perſons or Goods will be ſuffered to be landed from any Ship there, without firſt performing Quarantain.

CARTERET.

Whitehall, Oct. 7.

An Arrêt of the French King's Council of State, dated the 1ſt of October, N. S. preſcribes Rules to be generally obſerved at all the Ports of that Kingdom, with Reſpect to Ships Perſons and Goods coming thither from other Countries. Which Rules are as follows, and are publiſhed for the Information of all Britiſh Subjects whom it may concern.

CARTERET.

I.

His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty permits all foreign Ships and Veſſels, belonging to Subjects of the Princes and States with whom his Majeſty's Subjects have Liberty of Commerce, to enter with Goods not prohibited, the Ports and Rivers of France,

France, provided they do not come from Countries infected or ſuſpected of Infection, and that they did not touch at ſuch Countries, nor had Communication in their Paſſage with ſuſpected Ships; and provided alſo they bring due Certificates of Health from the Places whence they ſet out, and from all thoſe where they touched.

II.

The ſaid Certificates of Health, are to ſpecify the Name and Burthen of the Veſſel, the Name of the Captain or Maſter, the Number of the Sailors and Paſſengers, the Place from which the Veſſel ſet out, and thoſe ſhe touched at, the Quality and Quantity of the Goods laden in her, and whether they are of the Growth or Manufacture of the Country where ſhe was laden.

III.

The Goods which ſhall not be of the Growth or Manufacture of the Places where they were put on board, ſhall be accompanied with ſufficient Certificates that they were not ſuſpected of Contagion; which Certificates ſhall ſpecify the Time when the ſaid Goods were brought into the Port where they were laden, the Places from whence they were fetched, and whether after their Arrival they were opened and repacked.

IV.

The Certificates of Health, the Cuſtom-Houſe Permits, and the Bills of Lading, ſhall be ſigned by the Conſul of the French Nation, if any ſuch reſide in the Place where the Ship was laden, with Copies of the ſaid Papers.

V.

Such Conſul ſhall deliver to the Maſter of the Veſſel thoſe Copies ſealed up in a Packet directed to the Intendant or other proper Officer of the Port to which ſhe is bound.

VI.

The Ships and Veſſels, which having entered the Ports and Rivers of France, ſhall not fully ſatisfy all that is ordered by the preceeding Articles, ſhall be confiſcated, the Goods and Effects burnt, and the Perſons who came in them be all ſhut up in an Hoſpital there to perform Quarantain.

VII.

All Captains or Maſters, Sailors and Paſſengers, on board the Veſſels which ſhall enter the Ports, Harbours and Rivers of France, are forbidden to come aſhore, or to land any Goods, without the expreſs Permiſſion of the Magiſtrates of the Place or Officers of Health reſiding there, or to advance with their Veſſels beyond the Place which ſhall be aſſigned them by the Shallops under the Direction of thoſe Officers, on Pain of Death, and of the Goods and Effects being burnt.

VIII.

This Arrêt to take Place, with reſpect to all Ships departing from foreign Ports eight Days after the ſame ſhall be known there.

Whitehall, October 3.

The following Regulations to be obſerved with regard to Paſſengers and Goods bound from the Ports of London and Dover for Calais, having been tranſmitted by the proper Officer of that Place to the Agent of the Packet Boats at Dover, and by him to his Majeſty's Poſtmaſter General; the ſame having been laid before His Majeſty, are by His Majeſty's Command made publick, for the neceſſary Information of all his Majeſty's Subjects whom it may in any wiſe concern.

CARTERET.

Copy of the Regulations to be obſerved about the Contagion.

Article V.

The Captain of the Key ſhall give Notice to all the Packet-Boats and Tranſport-Ships which go and return from Dover and London to this Port, and to the Wherries, not to give Paſſage to any Perſon, of what Quality and Condition ſoever, not even to Couriers, unleſs they bring with them Bill's of Health ſigned by the Officers of the Towns from whence they come; and in caſe the Maſters of the Packet Boats, Tranſport-Ships or Wherries, do bring Perſons who are not furniſhed with Certificates of Health, the Town-Guard ſhall not ſuffer the Perſons or any Goods to be landed, but ſhall force them to return back upon the Penalties mentioned in the foregoing Article, which are, the Perſons to be ſhot, and the Ships and Cargoes to be burnt; the Town-Boats ſhall alſo be forbidden to bring them on Shore, unleſs they ſhall firſt have produced their Bills of Health to the Town-Guard.

Article VI.

As the Herring-Fiſhing brings into this Port great Numbers of Fiſhing-Boats to fiſh there, the Maſter of the Key is to give Notice from Week to Week, that none of them may pretend Ignorance, that they are forbidden upon Pain of Death to give Paſſage to, or to take in at Sea, or on Shore, any Perſon, upon any Pretence whatſoever, or to go on board any Ships coming from ſuſpected Places.

Done and eſtabliſhed at the Town-Houſe of Calais the 29th of September, 1721. Sign'd, The Preſident de Thoſſe, Clou Mahieu, P. Guillebert, F. le Mahieu, & Jean Prevoſt, Eſchevins. L. Laide, Maſter of the Key.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, Sept. 29, 1721.

Whereas the Briſtol Mail, diſpatched from thence on Wedneſday the 27th Inſtant, was laſt Night between 11 and 12 a-Clock robbed about a Mile on this Side Maidenhead, by one Highwayman, who carried off the Letters of Briſtol, Bath, and Chippenham: Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the ſaid Perſon concerned in this Robbery, ſo as to have him convicted of the ſame, ſhall receive a Reward of 200 l. to be paid by the Receiver General of the Poſt-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; and if any one of his Accomplices ſhall diſcover the Offender in the Manner aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon ſo making the Diſcovery, ſhall have the ſaid Reward of 200 l. and alſo his Majeſty's Pardon.

TOWNSHEND.

N. B. The Perſon who committed this Robbery, had on a Drab Colour Horſeman's Coat, and was mounted on a Bay Horſe with a white Face.

South-Sea Houſe, Oct. 5, 1721.

Whereas notwithſtanding the ſeveral Advertiſements already publiſhed, for the Proprietors in the Third and Fourth Money-Subſcriptions, to come to the South-Sea-Houſe and make their Claims of Stock for their Intereſts in theſe Subſcriptions, that Stock might be carried to their reſpective Accompts for the ſame, many Perſons have omitted to make their Claims; The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, That Attendance will be further given every Day for that Purpoſe till the 10th of November next. The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do likewiſe give Notice, That the Time limited for taking the Bonds of the ſaid Company in Payment of the 10 per Cent. on Money borrowed of the Company on Subſcription-Receipts, or on Stock actually transferr'd, expiring at Michaelmas laſt; They have prolonged the ſame to the 10th Day of November next, and will continue till then to take the Company's Bonds in Payment thereof. Whereas notwithſtanding a former Order to the contrary, many Letters of Attorney are made by Perſons living in or near the City of London; and whereas great Inconveniencies may ariſe by unneceſſarily allowing Stock to be transferred by Letter of Attorney: To prevent the ſame as much as poſſible, the Court of Directors have thought fit to publiſh this their Order, That for the future no Perſon living within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, be permitted to transfer any Stock by Letter of Attorney, unleſs in Caſe of Sickneſs or Lameneſs; and that where either of thoſe Caſes ſhall happen, and alſo in all Caſes of Difficulty attending Letters of Attorney, the ſame be laid before the Committee of Accompts of the ſaid Company for their Directions, before the Transfer be permitted.
